

FIFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

"To the weak I became weak, so that I might win the weak. I have become all things to all people, that I might by all means, save some." (1 Corinthians 9: 22)

Adaptability and flexibility to the culture and ministry we've been given are significant hallmarks of the Christian life and vocation. Just like Paul, intentional missionary disciples must find what inspires and motivates those to whom we're sent and also be open to being changed by them in the process. It means identifying with their personal struggles and difficulties in life and finding a way to bring good news to such circumstances. It's this openness to other people and respect for their particular circumstances that enables the gospel to be embraced with joy.

V DOMENICA DEL TEMPO ORDINARIO

Il sabato di Gesù iniziato nella sinagoga prosegue nella casa di Simone e si conclude il mattino successivo con una piccola fuga verso la campagna. Viene sottolineata la guarigione dei malati: Gesù è medico del corpo e dello spirito.

Nel vangelo si parla di malati. La prima lettura presenta il malato più celebre della Bibbia: Giobbe che si lamenta con accenti angosciati, non privi di afflato poetico, della sua condizione.

Paolo vede la predicazione del vangelo come una precisa, ineludibile consegna ricevuta da Dio: per soddisfarlo si è dato a tutti senza riserva.

La giornata di Gesù, dopo il ritorno dalla sinagoga, passa tra il pasto festivo e la guarigione dei malati, dopo il riposo notturno si conclude con la preghiera in un luogo solitario. Non possiamo seguirlo in tutto ma non possiamo disattenderlo in tutto.
