

THE MOST HOLY TRINITY

In today's Liturgy we're swept through time in glorious procession—from before earth and sky were set in place to the coming of the Spirit upon the new creation, the Church.

We begin in the heart of the Trinity, as we listen to the testimony of Wisdom in today's First Reading. Eternally begotten, the first-born of God, He is poured forth from of old in the loving delight of the Father.

Through Him the heavens were established, the foundations of the earth fixed. From before the beginning, He was with the Father as His "Craftsman," the artisan by which all things were made. And He took special delight, He tells us, in the crowning glory of God's handiwork—the human race, the "sons of men." In today's Psalm, He comes down from heaven, is made a little lower than the angels, comes among us as "the Son of Man".

All things are put under His feet so that He can restore to humanity the glory for which we were made from the beginning, the glory lost by sin. He tasted death that we might be raised to life in the Trinity, that His name might be made glorious over all the earth.

Through the Son, we have gained grace and access in the Spirit to the Father, as Paul boasts in today's Epistle.

The Spirit, the Love of God, has been poured out into our hearts—a Spirit of adoption, making us children of the Father once more.

This is the Spirit that Jesus promises in today's Gospel. His Spirit comes as divine gift and anointing, to guide us to all truth, to show us "the things that are coming," the things that were meant to be from before all ages—that we will find peace and union in God, we will share the life of the Trinity, we will dwell in God as He dwells in us.

DOMENICA DI PENTECOSTE

Si conclude il periodo pasquale con questa solennità, considerata come il giorno della nascita della Chiesa. La Pentecoste segna la grande svolta nella vita degli apostoli. Si potrebbe paragonare al battesimo nella vita di Gesù. Con la Pentecoste gli apostoli mettono fine alla loro vita privata e se ne vanno per il mondo a portare il Vangelo. Ricordiamo che lo Spirito è sempre presente e operante nel mondo.

In questa prima lettura lo Spirito scende sugli apostoli in forma vistosa e clamorosa: rombo, vento impetuoso, fuoco. Segno che lo Spirito di Dio è potenza, forza, innovazione, creatività. Lasciarsi investire da questo Spirito vuol dire in un certo senso non trovar più pace.

Paolo parla abbondantemente dello Spirito Santo e dei suoi doni: potrebbe essere chiamato il teologo e lo specialista dello Spirito Santo. I carismi in un certo senso sono tornati di moda, anche se in un significato molto più esteso e a volte deformato.

Il brano si potrebbe chiamare la pentecoste silenziosa. Anche nel cenacolo Gesù effonde il suo Spirito e insieme dona la pace e il potere di rimettere i peccati.
