

THE MOST HOLY TRINITY

In today's Liturgy we're swept through time in glorious procession—from before earth and sky were set in place to the coming of the Spirit upon the new creation, the Church.

We begin in the heart of the Trinity, as we listen to the testimony of Wisdom in today's First Reading. Eternally begotten, the first-born of God, He is poured forth from of old in the loving delight of the Father.

Through Him the heavens were established, the foundations of the earth fixed. From before the beginning, He was with the Father as His "Craftsman," the artisan by which all things were made. And He took special delight, He tells us, in the crowning glory of God's handiwork—the human race, the "sons of men." In today's Psalm, He comes down from heaven, is made a little lower than the angels, comes among us as "the Son of Man".

All things are put under His feet so that He can restore to humanity the glory for which we were made from the beginning, the glory lost by sin. He tasted death that we might be raised to life in the Trinity, that His name might be made glorious over all the earth.

Through the Son, we have gained grace and access in the Spirit to the Father, as Paul boasts in today's Epistle.

The Spirit, the Love of God, has been poured out into our hearts—a Spirit of adoption, making us children of the Father once more.

This is the Spirit that Jesus promises in today's Gospel. His Spirit comes as divine gift and anointing, to guide us to all truth, to show us "the things that are coming," the things that were meant to be from before all ages—that we will find peace and union in God, we will share the life of the Trinity, we will dwell in God as He dwells in us.

SANTISSIMA TRINITÀ

Il mistero della Trinità è troppo importante per non essere oggetto di una solennità. È stato scelto il momento migliore: dopo la conclusione del ciclo pasquale, alla ripresa del cammino ordinario, a metà anno liturgico. Cerchiamo di coglierne le implicazioni con la nostra vita, con la nostra storia.

Una splendida poesia descrive l'azione della Sapienza che assiste Dio passo passo nella costruzione del mondo; tutto è stato compiuto sotto il suo sguardo attonito. Per noi la Sapienza è il Figlio, il Verbo, Gesù. Un brano denso di concetti: la fede giustifica e mette in pace con Dio. Ci vantiamo di Dio e delle tribolazioni. Viviamo nella speranza.

Gesù parla di sé, dello Spirito che manda sugli apostoli, di quello che ha ricevuto dal Padre: siamo davanti a un piccolo spaccato della vita trinitaria.
