

THE HOLY FAMILY

As an example for us to follow, the Holy Family can seem a little too perfect: when we consider the more “dramatic” events of the Christmas and Easter story, it can seem so far removed from us. And yet, as today's Gospel reminds us (especially in the shorter version), there were also the so-called “hidden years” - the many years of family life in Nazareth, spent in ordinary things. During that time, we hear how Jesus grew and matured, and in the glimpse of that family life we see our example. The family is a basic unit of our Christian society, despite coming under threat nowadays.

Our celebration of this feast, and the Word of God we proclaim, announces that there is a lasting value in the ideals of family life, and the relationship between husband, wife, parents and children. Whatever the changing details of each age, honour, understanding and love always remain the recipe for the perfect, and holy, human family. It is love that we put on over all the other clothes of changing cultures and places, to guarantee the life of the family in imitation of the Holy Family of Jesus, Mary and Joseph.

SOLEMNITY OF MARY, THE HOLY MOTHER OF GOD

On January 1 we celebrate the Feast of Mary, the Mother of God. It's a rather curious title. In 431, a group of Christians began denying that Jesus was God, saying he was no more than a man. The leaders of the Christian community responded by affirming that Jesus was both God and man, and to emphasize their point further, began addressing his mother as “Theotokos”, the “God-bearer”.

It was a title given to Mary, but a title that really said more about Christ than about his mother. Mary bore Christ in her womb, Christ who was God.

This is one of those curious things about theological statements or doctrines about Mary. On the surface, they look like doctrines about her. But look more closely and you'll see that they're really doctrines that say more about Jesus than about anyone else.

Christ is the real point of every statement about Mary, because every statement about her is really a statement pointing or witnessing to Christ.

It is really fitting then, that we celebrate the feast of Mary, the “Theotokos”, the “God-bearer” on this the first day of the New Year.

On this day, we make resolutions, some a few, others many. Perhaps we might want to consider including in our resolutions, to become, like Mary and countless other good Christians out there, “God-bearers”, bringing the message of Christ to those whose lives we shall touch this year.

A preacher once said, “There are five gospels of Jesus Christ—Matthew, Mark, Luke, John, and you, the Christian. Many people will never read the first four”.

For many people, the life that we as followers of Christ live, will be the greatest and perhaps the sole proclamation of Jesus' message that they shall ever encounter.

Let us pray therefore that as we begin a New Year, we may be bearers of God, witnesses of Christ's love and compassion to a world of men and women that two thousand years after Jesus was born, still await the coming of Christ into their lives.

FIRST FRIDAY

First Friday Mass and Holy Hour January 5 at 7 PM. Confessions will be heard as well. All are welcome to come and spend some time with Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament.

SANTA FAMIGLIA DI GESÙ, MARIA E GIUSEPPE

Con la nascita di Gesù, la famiglia di Giuseppe e Maria è al completo. Con gioia celebriamo la festa della S. Famiglia e di tutte le famiglie che ad essa fanno riferimento.

La realtà dell'alleanza di trova al centro della storia della salvezza. Ma si richiede la fede: Abramo crede che dentro l'impotenza umana può operare la potenza vivificante del Dio fedele. E così diverrà padre di una moltitudine di popoli. L'autore della lettera agli Ebrei presenta l'esperienza religiosa di Abramo, fondata sulla fede in Dio nonostante tutte le apparenze. Egli sa che la vita appartiene prima di tutto a Dio.

La Santa Famiglia si reca al tempio a quaranta giorni di distanza dalla nascita del bambino. Accadono cose straordinarie. Raccogliamo l'implicito invito ad orientare le famiglie, in particolare i figli, verso la chiesa.

MARIA SS. MADRE DI DIO

Tutti sanno che Capodanno; forse non molti sanno che è una festa mariana e, per certi aspetti, la più importante festa mariana: Maria Madre di Dio. L'immacolata e l'Assunzione sono l'una preparazione, l'altra corollario della divina maternità di Maria. Si ricorda anche la circoncisione di Gesù e l'imposizione del nome. E per finire giornata della Pace, un tema tanto sentito e di battuto. Un paniere ricco di spunti per la nostra riflessione.

Leggiamo la benedizione dettata da Dio a Mosè per gli Israeliti. Chiaro riferimento al primo giorno dell'anno civile.

L'uomo riscattato da Gesù, figlio di una donna (unico accenno a Maria nelle lettere degli Apostoli), ospita nella sua persona lo Spirito di Dio, ininterrotto tramite col Padre.

Si riprende il racconto della nascita con l'arrivo dei pastori alla capanna, a cui segue il breve racconto della circoncisione e imposizione del nome. Al centro dell'attenzione Maria col Bambino.
